A young child wearing a blue and red winter jacket, a red and white striped hat, and black gloves is smiling broadly. They are holding two pairs of skis: one pair is white with red accents and the word 'alpine' in red, and the other is bright yellow with black accents and the word 'FISCHER' in black. The background is a snowy, mountainous landscape under a clear blue sky.

Join us on a cross-country ski tour at the nice ski tracks around Kiruna, learn more about the arctic nature.

We ski longer or shorter, depending on your skills, and enjoy the nature while the guide teaches you how to get better at skiing.
