Borrow a camera equipment, or a tripod for your own camera or mobile phone, and follow our professional Sami photo guides to photograph the Aurora.

With our local knowledge we choose the best spots for northern light photography for the night.

Our guides are born in the area and have been out in the forest since childhood. While waiting for the Aurora Borealis we teach you about for example the arctic nature, Sami culture and the basics of northern lights and night photography, so that you later, with your own camera , can create beautiful northern light images.

We can never guarantee that we will see the Aurora, but there are always chances. Even in bad weather there is many different spots with better weather, if you know where to go. We drive up to 40 minutes from Kiruna to find open skies.
